

Welham Green Book Swap visitors tops 1000

Emmie didn't know she was going to be the 1000th visitor to the Welham Green Community Book Swap when she visited on Wednesday the 15th Feb. with Mum Maxine. Emmie took advantage of half term to collect 2 more books to read. Mum Maxine is a regular Wednesday visitor and both enjoy a good read from the wide range of titles on offer.

The Book Swap just bring a book to swap a book, aims to fill a gap left by the Mobile Library Service closure and it's free to all.

It started in March 2016 in refurbished side rooms at the North Mymms Memorial Hall, Station Road, Welham Green and due to demand now opens on the 1st Saturday of each month and every Wednesday from 9.30m -12.30.

It is supported by The North Mymms Parish Council and staffed by volunteers, there are approx. 1000 quality books available and it offers refreshments and a meeting point for locals.
